

I believe that the media already has too much control and influence over what the public believes to be true. No one company should control that. I oppose a vote that would lead to more media consolidation.